

EQUAL JUSTICE AMERICA

Summer 2023 EJA Fellow:

Name: Nicole Reed

Law School: Brooklyn Law School

Organization: Legal Aid Society

Update 1:

This summer I will be working at Legal Aid Society's Civil Law Reform Unit in the Homeless Rights Project. I believe that by working together, we can uphold the promise of "justice for all," and create a more fair and equitable legal system. To help me do this work this summer, I am receiving a fellowship from Equal Justice to financially support me as an unpaid intern. Please consider donating to Equal Justice America, and in the process, you will be donating to me and the other fellows as we continue on our journeys!

Update 2:

A couple weeks ago I started my internship with Legal Aid Society's Civil Law Reform Unit in the Homeless Rights Project.

I have learned so much in this short amount of time. I consider myself a person who stays up-to-date with news, politics, etc. but I really didn't know the severity of these issues. Maybe I'm naive, maybe I wasn't looking hard enough, but I can tell you that this internship has provided me so much knowledge and inspiration already. I can only hope I can give that back in advocacy for my clients and in fighting for their rights and the rights of others.

Update 3:

This summer I have been working at Legal Aid Society's Civil Law Reform Unit in the Homeless Rights Project. Through this internship, I've witnessed firsthand the imperative need for housing advocates. I believe that by working together, we can uphold the promise of "justice for all," and create a more fair and equitable legal system. To help me do this work this summer, I am receiving a fellowship from Equal Justice to financially support me as an unpaid intern. Please consider donating to Equal Justice America, and in the process, you will be donating to me and the other fellows as we continue on our journeys!

EQUAL JUSTICE AMERICA

Update 4:

And it's done! What a great experience! Today I finished my last day at Legal Aid Society's Civil Law Reform Unit in the Homeless Rights Project. Through this internship, I've witnessed firsthand the imperative need for housing advocates. I believe that by working together, we can uphold the promise of "justice for all," and create a more fair and equitable legal system. To help me do this work this summer, I am receiving a fellowship from Equal Justice to financially support me as an unpaid intern.

Update 5:

Last month I completed my internship with Legal Aid Society's Homeless Rights Project. Now I have started school and I have already been able to start utilizing the skills I learned as well as connect fellow classmates with the resources from my internship. Later this semester, our Brooklyn Law School Immigration Law Society will be having a panel to talk about New York's Right to Shelter and the current influx of migrant people, with panelists being from Legal Aid Society. I would not have been able to have this experience without Equal Justice America. The best way to continue supporting organizations like this is to donate to Fellows. Please consider giving back!