

EQUAL JUSTICE AMERICA

Summer 2026

EJA FELLOWSHIP RECIPIENT

NAME	Madison Ambrose
LAW SCHOOL	Northeastern University School of Law
ORGANIZATION	Prisoners' Legal Services of MA

Update 1:

As I navigate the world of prisoners' rights with the Prisoners' Legal Services of Massachusetts, I am constantly thankful for EJA's summer program. This fellowship has allowed hundreds of students across the country to provide legal services to indigent clients. As one of those students, I have had the opportunity to meet the wonderful attorneys of PLSMA who are fighting every day to provide for our state's most underserved population: prisoners. Thank you to the amazing professors of Northeastern University School of Law for preparing me for this internship! I cannot wait to see what all this summer has in store.

Update 2:

I've continued to learn from the fantastic attorneys at the Prisoners' Legal Services of Massachusetts, and I am in awe of the tenacity with which they advocate. As I continue to pursue a career within the realm of public interest law, I could not be more excited to work at PLSMA this summer as an Equal Justice Fellow.

Update 3:

As of this week, I have completed one third of my summer internship with the Prisoners' Legal Services of Massachusetts as an Equal Justice America Fellow.

I can easily say that the highlight thus far has been sitting in on virtual client meetings and listening to their stories. It's conversations like those that humanize the law and remind me why I decided to pursue a career in the realm of public interest. There is no replacing the human connections that come from these conversations, and it is those instances that have revitalized my passion for legal studies. I look forward to the remainder of my internship as I continue to learn from the brilliant attorneys and support staff at PLS.

Update 4:

I cannot believe I'm over halfway through my summer co-op with the Prisoners' Legal Services of Massachusetts. I have loved working alongside the staff and other interns. As I continue reviewing records, writing, researching, and meeting with clients, I want to thank Equal Justice America for their support and the services they have offered throughout this summer. Their unwavering dedication to providing for students in the realm of public interest is inspiring!

Final Reflection:

As my time as an Equal Justice Fellow with the Prisoners' Legal Services of Massachusetts draws to a close, I would like to thank the Equal Justice Program. This program helped me to work for an organization that I have revered since I was an undergraduate student. I have loved every second of this internship, and I am so incredibly thankful for the thoughtfulness of the PLS attorneys. Their guidance and dedication to PLS's mission and clients is inspiring.

Thank you for an amazing summer!
