

Summer 2020 EJA Fellow:

Name: Jacob Metz-Lerman

Law School: NYU School of Law

Organization: Greater Boston Legal Services

Week of June 15th

As a part of my EJA Summer Fellowship I have been interning at Greater Boston Legal Services. I've been interviewing clients for asylum declarations, researching, and preparing immigration forms.

Week of July 6th

As a part of my EJA Summer Fellowship I have been interning at Greater Boston Legal Services. Things are going well, I've built good relationships with the clients I'm interviewing.

Week of July 27th

I'm still working for Greater Boston Legal Services and its going well. I've learned a lot about practicing law in the US and about the human rights conditions in the countries where my clients come from.

Week of August 10th

This summer has been great working for Greater Boston Legal Services I've learned a lot serving asylum seekers here in the US, turns out the work is very similar to my previous work serving refugees in Egypt.
