

Summer 2020 EJA Fellow:

Name: Martin Stainthorp

Law School: Chicago-Kent College of Law

Organization: Legal Aid Chicago

Week of June 15th

On a day when the Supreme Court announced a hugely important decision protecting the DACA Program, I am feeling extremely excited and proud to be spending the summer with Legal Aid Chicago working to protect the rights of immigrant workers and their families. Thanks to Equal Justice America for supporting my work this summer.

Week of (date): July 6th

Proud to be spending my summer internship with Legal Aid Chicago doing important work supporting the rights of farmworkers, who do truly essential work that we all rely on but are so often underpaid and exploited and exposed to dangerous working conditions. Thanks to Equal Justice America for supporting my work this summer.

Week of July 27th

As my summer internship comes to a close soon, I want to thank Equal Justice America for supporting my work with Legal Aid Chicago defending immigrant and workers' rights. Thanks to Equal Justice America for supporting my work this summer.

Week of August 10th

Thanks again to Equal Justice America for supporting my internship at Legal Aid Chicago this summer. Please consider supporting EJA.
