

Summer 2021 EJA Fellow:

Name: Radiance Campbell

Law School: Georgetown University Law Center

Organization: Washington Lawyers' Committee
for Civil Rights and Urban Affairs

Update 1:

During my first few weeks I've begun working on cases for tenants in areas of DC that are vulnerable to redevelopment and gentrification. I am so thankful to learn from Washington Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights and Urban Affairs and for Equal Justice America's support!

Update 2:

In addition to fair housing cases, I've begun working in police misconduct/housing justice. In a gentrifying D.C., we're fighting for residents being priced out by developers & scared out by police.

Update 3:

In my last week, I've met with tenants in our Park 7 case, interviewed potential named plaintiffs for a class action suit, and researched emerging fair housing and police misconduct issues in nearby jurisdictions!

Entry 4:

Though the summer is over, I'll be taking what I've learned over to HUDgov to continue my fair housing work this fall! Help more law students find their path!
