Update 2: Happy fourth!! Grateful to be spending this summer working to make real the promise of equality under the law--particularly for students of color.

Update 3: Really glad that at Public Counsel, I've been able to get experience with all aspects of PI litigation, from fact research and developing litigation memos to monitoring settlements.

Entry 4: Grateful to have spent my summer at Public Counsel's Opportunity Under Law team, learning firsthand about public interest litigation, especially on issues of educational equity. Thanks as always to Equal Justice America for invaluable support.
