

Summer 2021 EJA Fellow:

Name: Palmer Gunderson

Law School: The University of Chicago Law School

Organization: Institute for Justice Clinic on Entrepreneurship

---

Update 1:

I am excited to start my summer working in the Institute for Justice Clinic on Entrepreneurship at the University of Chicago Law School with a fellowship from Equal Justice America. I look forward to helping Chicago small businesses navigate legal issues and transition from the Covid-19 pandemic.

Update 2:

I've been learning a lot about the barriers and legal issues facing entrepreneurs in Chicago! I've also been staying busy researching legal issues and drafting memos and contracts.

Update 3:

It's been a busy week at the IJ Clinic! I've been helping our clients with a variety of legal issues and learning more about the clinic's policy initiatives, especially related to business licensing. There are a lot of barriers to starting and maintaining a small business and I'm excited to be part of the process!

Entry 4:

I've learned so much this summer about the legal challenges and barriers facing small business owners in Chicago. I've really enjoyed getting to know my clients this summer and learning about their amazing businesses. I'm looking forward to continuing my work with the IJ Clinic during the academic year!
