

Summer 2021 EJA Fellow:

Name: Julia Marostica

Law School: King Hall, UC Davis School of Law

Organization: East Bay Community Law Center

Update 1:

Time for my EJA Fellow Update! I am just starting my fourth week at the East Bay Community Law Center. So far, work at the East Bay Community Law Center has been really rewarding. I'm especially grateful to get to use my Spanish to speak with clients in their native language. I feel so lucky to be in law school at UC Davis School of Law which has such an emphasis on public service.

Update 2:

Time for my second EJA Fellow Update! I am officially halfway through my summer internship at East Bay Community Law Center, which is wild. I have learned so much about everyday lawyering, and I feel so lucky to be working in the Housing Clinic, trying to keep people in their homes. I'm also feeling grateful for the training from King Hall that allows me to do my job to the fullest extent of my ability.

Update 3:

Time for an EJA Fellow Update! I only have three weeks left in my summer internship at East Bay Community Law Center! Working in direct services this summer has challenged me in the best way, helping me to grow as a future lawyer and as a person. Even on difficult days, I'm grateful to be helping people in my community through my work with the Housing Clinic. I'm excited to go back to King Hall for my final year having learned so much.

Entry 4:

Time for my last EJA Fellow Update! Today is the last day of my summer internship at the East Bay Community Law Center! I feel so lucky to have been able to help my community through my work at the Housing Clinic, and to have met so many wonderful people. I'm excited to go back to King Hall for my final year. It's wild to be a 3L, but I feel so much more prepared for real-world lawyering than I did at the beginning of the summer. Please donate to Equal Justice America so they can continue funding direct services legal interns like me.
